

HOUSE OF HUMANE LETTERS

LATIN SCOPE AND SEQUENCE

Click each class title below for more information.

Wheelock's Chapters 1-5

- Review parts of speech
- Latin inflection and word order
- Latin verbs of the 1st and 2nd conjugation-Characteristics of verbs
- 1st and 2nd declension nouns-Nominative and Accusative cases
- Adjective and Noun agreement
- Irregular linking verb sum, esse-An introduction to Subject/Predicate in Latin
- An introduction to the future and past tense in verbs—tense changes

Wheelock's Chapters 1-20

- All indicative tenses for all 4 conjugations.
- 1st-4th declension nouns
- Apposition and Latin Word Order
- 1st-3rd declension adjectives
- Verbs Sum and possum
- Reflexive pronouns and demonstratives.
- Relative pronouns.
- Ablative of means, instrument, manner, accompaniment, place.
- Passive voice for the 1st-2nd conjugations.

Wheelock's Chapters 21-40

- Passive voice for all 4 conjugations.
- All declensions of noun (1st-5th)
- Participles
- Ablative Absolute
- All Ablative Uses
- All infinitives and Indirect Statement
- Comparative and superlative adjectives
- Subjunctive mood (complete)
- All subjunctive constructions (purpose, result, conditionals, indirect questions).
- Deponent verbs
- Verbs: volo, nolo, malo, eo, fio
- Gerund, gerundive, supine.

- Students are introduced to reading Latin literature. It is assumed they have completed the Latin grammar cycle.

- Students who have completed all three years of HHL Latin and desire more instruction in reading Latin literature.